NOTES

Tonights' Game

For just the second time all season, the Tornadoes and Jackals will square off at Hanover Insurance Park ending a streak of 17 straight games of inter-league play against American Association opponents (4-13). The game also marks the first time back for former Tornado to Nick Salotti who joined the Jackals this past weekend.

Who Says Catchers Can't Pitch

Chris Torres wowed the crowd at Hanover Insurance Park at Fitton Field and left to a standing ovation in his first career start. After making 26 relief appearances, the Tornadoes starting catcher threw six and two-thirds scoreless allowing just two hits and three walks against the RailCats. Torres threw just 99 pitches in his first pitching appearances (fifth overall) since June 14th when he gave up two earned runs in two innings against Quebec in a 9-6 loss.

Be Wary Of the Giarraputo

Nick Giarraputo has been the best hitter in the CanAm league this season with a league-high .365 batting average and he's second with 17 home runs and 49 RBI. The former New Yorks Mets prospect has already doubled his career home runs from his first six season combined (16 home runs in 388 games) and was the player of the month for the league in June.

NOTES

Sizzling Streaks

Ryan Brockett and Brandon Pinckney have been on fire lately with each player recording hitting streaks of at least six games. Brockett has raised his batting average to .220 in the midst of a six-game hitting streak in which he's hit .300. Pinckney has been even hotter, hitting safely in eight straight games and reaching base in 24 straight games. The Tornadoes second baseman is tied for second in the league in batting average at .343, if he keeps this pace up, it would be his first full season hitting over .300 since 2004 when he split time in A and AA ball with the Cleveland Indians.

Salotti's Return

Nick Salotti will be back in Worcester Monday but in a different uniform, after spending four seasons in a Tornadoes uniform. Salotti compiled a .285 batting average with 46 home runs, 198 RBI and 159 runs in 313 games.

Sausville Coming Home

Dan Sausville will be making his 1st start at home in almost a month (June 23) for the Tornadoes tonight. The righty is 1-0 on the year against the Jackals with Worcester's lone shutout of the season, a 5 hit, 7 IP outing.
